FREE SAIGON!

Saigon is Australia's last circus elephant. At 55 years of age, she is now too old to perform. Yet she is still trucked from town to town with Perry Bros Circus, spending months on end in a barren enclosure out the back of a truck, surrounded by an electric fence. She has no remaining elephant companions, and no quality of life. Experts agree that keeping an elephant in these conditions is cruel.

We, the undersigned, call on Perry Bros Circus to permit its solitary elephant Saigon to be retired from circus life and homed in an appropriate facility where her behavioural needs can be met and where she can enjoy quality of life, for the rest of her life.
